Getting the Love You Want

...an intensive two-day workshop for married and unmarried couples to rediscover the joy and spiritual potential of being together while using their relationship for personal change and growth.

This two-day couple's workshop is often compared to three to six months of weekly couple's therapy.

First featured on Oprah almost 20 years ago, in a recent anniversary issue of her Oprah Magazine she claimed . . .

"One of my top twenty best shows ever!"

What Others Are Saying . . .

"I've known Rick for many years as a friend and as a professional. His program has helped countless couples achieve happier marriages and relationships!"

Doc Rivers, Head Coach
NBA World Champion Boston Celtics

"At a time when marriage seems to be a most endangered institution, Rick Brown offers powerfully effective, common sense tools with which to develop and maintain loving relationships. Our marriage was powerfully enriched."

The Honorable Dick and Nancy Schulze
Former United States Congressman

"Rick Brown is a consummate teacher. He blends a great command of his material with a wonderful sense of humor. My wife Deborah and I found his workshop informative, engaging, moving, and practically useful. After more than 20 years of marriage, I wasn't sure what more we could learn about discoveries that have truly enriched our relationship."

Tony Schwartz, NY Times Best Selling Author
What Really Matters: Searching for Wisdom in America

The Unique Design of this workshop is appropriate for you...

- if you want to enrich a good relationship
- if you are beginning a relationship you want to keep
- if you are in a difficult relationship and want to resolve long-standing conflicts
- if you are near break-up or divorce and want to decide if the relationship can be saved

The Workshop includes lectures, written exercises, guided imagery, and live demonstrations of necessary communication skills and processes. Although couples come together in a large group to hear these presentations, you share only with your partner, as confidentiality and safety is maintained throughout the workshop. A staff of support therapists is available to assist you throughout the workshop.

- Greater compassion for your partner. This happens for everyone to a greater or lesser degree.
- New communication skills to break destructive cycles of relating. Couples learn how to channel the energy from their arguments to create passion and stability in their relationship.
- Discovering how the unconscious forces that attract you to your partner are also the source of conflict. Participants receive more information about themselves and their partner, organized in a new, more thoughtful way.
- New tools for re-romanticizing your relationship to re-establish the passion of your early time together.
- Helping each other finish childhood.
- Learning how to use your relationship for emotional healing and spiritual evolution.

What you can expect from participating in a couples workshop...
